PREAMBLE

Mandatory attendance

- All absences from mandatory activities must be “excused”. “Excused” is defined as being approved by the Undergraduate Medical Education (UGME) Office.
- All absences will be recorded.
- Attendance is mandatory in interactive small group activities and certain large group activities or clinical sessions including, but not restricted to, Case-based learning (CBL), Physician Skill Development (PSD), Society, the Individual and Medicine (SIM), Year 1 Community Week, and Year 2 Mandatory Clinical Week.
- In addition, some key large group sessions are mandatory, as indicated in the scheduling system.
- Attendance will be monitored regularly including performing spot checks during mandatory sessions. All instances of a student who is found absent during a random spot check, and who does not have an approved absence, will be brought to the attention of the Vice-Dean.

Unexcused absence

- An unexcused absence is defined as an absence without an approval of the UGME Office.
- Make-up work may be required at the discretion of the Pre-clerkship Director. Any unexcused absence will be considered a lack of professionalism and will be brought to the attention of the Vice-Dean, UGME or a delegate and may be grounds for failure.

Blackout periods

- Day of an examination
  - The use of Personal Days (PD), Conference Days (CD) or Medical Leadership Days by a student is NOT permitted on the day of an examination.
- Obesity Week

Utilizing sequential days for excused absences

- The maximum number of sequential days that may be used for Conference Days is THREE (3).
- The maximum number of sequential days that may be used for Personal Days is TWO (2).
- The maximum number of sequential days that may be used for a combination of Conference Days and Personal Days is THREE (3).

Maximum number of students receiving approval for excused absences

- No more than 10% of the class will be given approval for a Conference Day, Personal Day or Medical Leadership Day on any given day.
- Approval will be given on a first come, first served basis as determined by the date that the UGME receives the request through the Absence Request Electronic System.
Cumulative maximum number of excused absences allowed

- The cumulative maximum number of days of excused absences per academic year is TEN (10). The names and files of students exceeding ten (10) absences will be brought to the attention of the Pre-clerkship Director. Cases will be reviewed by a committee. Consequences for exceeding the maximum number of allowable absences may include, but not limited to, further assignments, completion of mandatory requirements, remediation assignments and/or course failure.

- Any staff or faculty member concerned about a student with fewer than ten (10) absences may bring this to the attention of the Pre-clerkship Director. These concerns may include concerns with the student’s performance and/or professionalism.

- To be eligible for academic credit, excused absences cannot exceed 50 percent of a course. Absence of more than 50 percent of a course will require repetition of that course during an additional academic year according to the Student Promotion Executive Committee (SPEC) decision.

Pre-clerkship examinations

- Approval to defer an examination may only be granted by the Vice-Dean, UGME or a delegate.

- Students who write an examination during the period of disability specified on the medical certificate cannot later plead illness to appeal their examination results.
