Language of Instruction—Regulation

Students must attend the classes in the language stream to which they were admitted. Students must respect their assigned schedule and remain in the group to which they are assigned for all sessions, whether mandatory or not. If members of the administration team cannot confirm your presence, it will be considered an unexcused absence, which will be forwarded to the appropriate member of the UGME Leadership Team for action.