Presentation

- Put your name at the top of each page and number all pages.
- Use 12-point font or larger and a maximum of six lines per inch, single spaced.
- Paper must be 8 1/2" x 11" (22x 28 cm) and margins must be at least 3/4" (2 cm) around.
- Submit the following information as one attachment.

Subdivide your document according to the numbered sections below.

1) Significant contributions

List the five most significant research contributions that you have made during your career. Explain their significance.

2) Research contributions

New Tier 1 and Tier 2 nominees: List all research contributions over the last five (5) years.

New Tier 2 nominees whose nomination includes a Tier 2 justification: List all research contributions over your career.

Tier 1 renewal nominees: List all research contributions over the last seven (7) years.

Tier 2 renewal nominees: List all research contributions over the last five (5) years.

Over the last 5 or 7 years refers to the last five or seven years from the deadline date for the submission of the nomination (for example, a 2010 deadline means 2005 or 2003 inclusively).

Briefly explain the citation conventions for your discipline (e.g., senior author first in multi-authored publications).

Contributions may include articles, monographs, books, patents, copyrights, products, services, technology transfer, and creative or artistic works. With multi-authored publications, please identify any trainees that you supervised by underlining their names.

For published contributions, list the full authorship as it appears in the original publication, year, title, name and volume of the publication, and the first and last page numbers. For publications in press, indicate the date of acceptance. For publications submitted, indicate the journal to which they were submitted.

Do not include papers in preparation.

For publications in languages other than French or English, provide a translation of the title and the name of the publication.

Group your contributions by category in the following order, listing your most recent contributions first:

1. Refereed contributions: books (where applicable, subdivide according to those that are single authored, co-authored, and edited works), monographs, book chapters, articles in scholarly refereed journals.

2. Other refereed contributions, such as: conference proceedings, papers presented at scholarly meetings or conferences, articles in professional or trade journals, government publications, etc.

3. Non-refereed contributions, such as: book reviews, published reviews of your work, research reports, policy papers, public lectures, creative works, papers in conference proceedings, specialized publications, technical reports, internal reports, discussions, abstracts, symposium records, monographs, books or book chapters, conference presentations, government publications, etc.

4. Forthcoming contributions: indicate one of the following statuses: "submitted", "revised and submitted", "accepted" or "in press". Provide the name of the journal or book publisher and the number of pages.

Note: The Secretariat will accept supplemental information after the nomination deadline date limited to updates regarding publications, research support, and other contributions. The Secretariat will use this information according to its internal guidelines.

3) Leadership

Provide evidence of international leadership (Tier 1), or potential to lead (Tier 2) in an area of research or discipline.

- Describe (if applicable based on your career stage) any involvement in broader intellectual leadership activities such as the stewardship of initiatives at a national or international level that have had an influence and impact that extends outside of your own institution. Comment on the positive or negative impact (if any) these activities have had on your individual research productivity.
- Describe how you have improved (if applicable) the institution's ability to leverage additional research resources (including financial and non-financial resources).

4) Training and Supervisory Experience

- Describe your track record in training graduate students and postdoctoral fellows (if applicable). Indicate your role in supervising or co-supervising on-going and/or completed theses by the student's level of studies.
- Describe contributions you made to involve students in your research activities (e.g., doctoral, masters, undergraduate).
- Specify if your opportunities for such contributions have been limited because your university does not have graduate degree programs in your field or discipline.

5) Other contributions

Describe other activities that show the impact of your work, such as awards, contributions to scientific peer review (membership on peer review committees, external reviews etc.), consulting, contributions to professional practice or public policy, memberships on committees, boards, or policy-making bodies with government or the private sector, voluntary work, work within or with community or not-for-profit organizations, or work in non-academic positions.

6) Career Interruptions and Special Circumstances

The Secretariat asks its reviewers and adjudication committee to take into consideration both career interruptions and special circumstances that may have affected the record of research achievement of nominees. In doing so, reviewers and adjudication committee members will be able to more accurately estimate the productivity of the nominee, independent of any career interruptions or special circumstances.

Career interruptions occur when, for health, family or other reasons, a nominee is taken away from his or her research work for an extended period of time.

Special circumstances involve slow-downs in research productivity created by health, family or other reasons (i.e., the nominee was not taken completely away from his or her work).

In these cases, the nominee should explain the absence(s) and ask that this be taken into consideration by the reviewers and adjudication committee. Include the start and end dates, and the reason(s) or a brief explanation of the absence(s).

The Secretariat entrusts its reviewers and adjudication committee with the responsibility to reach an assessment of research productivity that takes into account the impact of career interruptions and/or special circumstances.
